Community Foundation Offering Funding Opportunities to Local Faith-Based Organizations

LANSING, MICH. – An open call to any faith-based organization in Ingham, Clinton or Eaton County: the Community Foundation is offering 10 grants to help support their charitable projects. Organizations can apply from now until July 1, 2019.

Each grant awarded offers $500 to fund a project that addresses a community need. These grants support charitable initiatives of faith-based organizations that benefit a community as a whole, beyond any one religion. Since 1997, the Foundation has granted over $91,000 to 326 faith-based organizations in the capital region.

Projects ineligible for funding are: building funds, faith-formation activities or programs requiring anything in return from those it benefits.

Organizations can find the grant application and instructions online.

The Community Foundation is passionate about creating vibrant, thriving communities throughout Michigan's capital region. The Foundation serves donors who have unique charitable goals and want to invest in the long-term success of their communities, supports area nonprofits with grants and personalized coaching, and leads innovative projects that drive community growth. The Community Foundation (also known as the Capital Region Community Foundation) is a tax-exempt public charity that serves the charitable needs and enhances the quality of life for people in Ingham, Clinton and Eaton counties.
